

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Stoney Creek.

Hot, dry days and cold frosty nights; tobacco all cut and mostly housed; the last cutting did well. Wheat sowing in full blast.

Bro. J. A. Peters evidently forgot himself last Sunday at Pleasant Ridge Church; he read a chapter, preached his sermon, organized the church, and dismissed without prayer.

"Nix" certainly had too much under his belt when he wrote his communication for the last ROUNDABOUT; the Plum Branch toll gate has not been moved from Henry Brawner's up the pike two miles to Frank Brawner's.

Miss Lezette Brawner and Mr. Curtis Steger visited friends on Bark Branch last Sunday.

We are sorry to announce the death, on the 18th inst., of the infant child of John Perkins; we tender our sympathy to the bereaved parents.

John Smith and family, of Shelby county, were visiting friends in this vicinity during the week.

A. J. Greenwell and wife, of Croppers, Shelby county, visited the family of Mr. Wm. Smith last week.

The marriage of Mr. L. Harrod and Miss Flora Wallace took us by surprise. We now advise all the young ladies that want to marry to eat about a peck of apples, and then secure the assistance of Frank Capito; if he don't marry them off there is no hopes for them; he is the best matrimonial agent in the county; he has never failed when he set his head to it.

Bridgeport.

Another good rain.

Hickory nuts scarce.

Two months till Christmas.

No new cases of diphtheria.

Mrs. Gussie Sargent is better.

That other wedding will occur in November.

Little Miss Mary Roberts is very much indisposed.

Mrs. Mollie Armstrong has returned home from a visit to relatives in Missouri.

Mr. F. M. Scofield has had his dwelling painted, which adds very much to its appearance.

Mrs. Parmelle Callis is lying quite ill at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Frank Hackley.

Sorghum making has commenced. The yield will be light owing to the small quantity of corn cultivated this season.

Mrs. Ben Elliott, who has been confined to bed for a week or two with malarial fever, still remains quite ill.

Rev. J. D. H. Corwin will preach at Franklin Church to-morrow at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

Now that the game law is no longer a hindrance the farmers are very much annoyed by the frequent trespassing of parties hunting on their lands.

Mr. J. Jennie Parrent and family, and Mr. James Jasper and family, of Shelby county, have returned home from a visit to friends and relatives in this town and vicinity.

Rev. B. F. Hungerford, pastor of New South Benson Church, will preach at Franklin Church next Saturday at 2 o'clock, p. m., and Sunday at 10 o'clock, a. m., Nov. 1st and 2d.

Mr. E. D. Kirk late of this county, and Mr. Robert Clark, of Graefenburg, Shelby county, had a difficulty recently which culminated last Sunday evening in the death of the former by the latter. The weapon used being a double-barrel shot gun.

Mr. W. C. Harrison, jr., wife and little son, Hatton, of Murfreesboro, Tennessee, have returned home from a week's visit to relatives in this section, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Rebecca Crockett, who will remain some two weeks visiting friends and relatives in that State.

The Franklin County Teachers Association convened in the Frankfort Public School building last Saturday. Mr. C. F. Exum addressed the meeting in a brief pointed speech on the subject of Education, which was well received by all present. Mr. J. O. Robinson gave a model lesson on English Grammar in a very clear and concise still. Next meeting third Saturday in November. We hope the teachers in the county will manifest more interest in the future in this great work.

Cedar Run.

We all went to the circus.

Mrs. Lizzie Johnson is improving. A welcome shower Tuesday night. Wheat is coming up very slow and irregular.

Mrs. Bettie returned to Quality Corner Monday.

Mrs. H. L. Tyler is suffering very much with neuralgia.

Miss Effie Russel, of Stoney Creek, is visiting Mrs. W. A. Moore.

Little Mildred Moore, of Frankfort, made a short visit out here last week.

H. L. Tyler visited friends and relatives near the mouth of Elkhorn last week.

Messrs. G. W. (Dock) Johnson and Frank Dillon visited Versailles last Sunday.

Miss Lucy B. Johnson has returned home from several weeks' visit to Bullet county.

Miss Lillie Plummer, of Sweet Owen, is the guest of her cousins, the Misses Cardwell's.

Mr. Lewis Moore and children, of Belle Point, spent Sunday with his brother, W. A. Moore.

Mr. James Lichon has gone to Spencer county to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Franklin.

Misses Fannie Campbell and Josie O'Connell, of Farmdale, were the guest of the Misses Johnson's, of Long Hungry.

Misses Minnie Thompson, Annie Moore and Len Moore visited S. P. Moore, the Exposition, of Louisville, and Jeffersonville, Indiana, last week.

Last Monday as Mr. B. S. Hughes' team was returning from Frankfort it became frightened and ran over the bridge near Mr. Dunlap's, killing a fine young mule.

There is a widow and a young gent in this vicinity who go to the north side of the river very often but can not get through one of the toll gates, so we learned, as they always turn back at the gate.

On Thursday, the sixteenth, as some of the boys were going to the circus, they lit a match, stuck it in a gate post near Mr. James Pence's tobacco barn, the post took fire and the timely approach of Mrs. Pence and a convenient spring saved the barn and tobacco. Be careful, boys, where you stick a lighted match.

Q. CUMBER.

A Walking Skeleton.

Mr. E. Springer, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes: "I was afflicted with lung fever and abscess on lungs, and reduced to a walking skeleton. Got a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which did me so much good that I bought a dollar bottle. After using three bottles, found myself once more a man, completely restored to health, with a hearty appetite, and a gain in flesh of 48 lbs."

Call at Joe LeCompte's Drug Store and get a free trial bottle of this certain cure for all Lung Diseases. Large bottles $1.00.

Twisted Bones.

Mr. J. R. Stewart, of Macon, Ga., a well known and trustworthy gentleman, makes the following statement: "My son, who was between three and four years old, was all drawn up with rheumatism. His bones were twisted, and he was all doubled out of shape. He suffered intense pain, had lost his appetite, was cross and fretful. He was reduced to a mere skeleton, and had to be carried about on a pillow. As these cases of rheumatism, where the bones were twisted and the joints were all crooked, had for years baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians, I determined to use Swift's Specific, as I had seen testimonials from men whom I knew to be trustworthy, of similar cases it had cured. I used two large bottles of S. S. S. according to directions, with the most satisfactory results. My son commenced improving with the first dose of the medicine. His sufferings diminished daily and his appetite increased; he became cheerful and in good spirits. Gradually he regained use of his limbs, the twisted bones and joints straightened out and in less than two months he was entirely cured, and could walk and get about as well as any child of his age.

Beware of imitations of Swift's Specific, gotten up by unprincipled parties to deceive the public; some of these frauds bear the lie on their faces purporting to be vegetable remedies, when they are really nothing but strong solutions of mercury and potash.

Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.

Burchhardt keeps the best meat in the city.

"A Single Fact is Worth a Ship-Load of Argument."

Mr. W. B. Lathrop, of South Easton, Mass., under date of Jan. 7, 1884, says: "My father had for years an eating cancer on his under lip, which had been gradually growing worse until it had eaten away his under lip down to the gums, and was feeding itself on the inside of his cheek, and the surgeons said a horrible death was soon to come. We gave him nine bottles of Swift's Specific and he has been entirely cured. It has created great excitement in this section."

Burchhardt one of our old butchers, understands his business, and he buys nothing but the best stock he can find, at the highest market price.
